April by Roy Whitlock

It is an April evening, after the rain,
The sky is now clear and velvet blue,
And the pregnant earth is once again
Refreshed and ready to renew
Its urgent quest for spring.

Resurrection stirs within the air
And dormant spirits fling wide the cold, frosty, bare
And icy star of death,
That seeks spring's transient grave,
And with immortal breath Easter comes and hearts are brave.

And all beside the ice-freed hills,
Nod the dancing yellow daffodils.

The Revd Lee Gabel

Has been appointed as Priest in charge of the North Wolds Group and Brocklesby Park with Croxton group of Parishes.

I grew up in Byram Park, which is a small village in North Yorkshire, and in 1995 I trained as a musical instrument maker at Leeds College of Music. Six years later, in 2001, I transferred my skills into boat building, moving to Oxfordshire, and I lived and worked there until 2014.

I began training for ordination in 2011 at Ripon College Cuddesdon, where I studied on the Oxford Ministry Course while still working as a boat builder. I was then ordained Deacon in 2014 at Lincoln Cathedral and I began my curacy in Scunthorpe, where I was licensed to St Lawrence Frodingham and All Saints New Brumby.

Living and ministering in Scunthorpe has been a great learning experience and we shall miss the people we have come to know and love, but I have always known that I am drawn to rural ministry. I plan to bring my enthusiasm for rural ministry to my new role, and I am pleased to have been offered this opportunity to live and minister in this beautiful part of the Diocese of Lincoln. I am married to Abi and we have two children, Hebe (9) and Joseph (7), and we are all very much looking forward to this next phase of our lives together.
